KORTS Kids to Camp Application Guidelines

The KORTS Kids to Camp Program is a non-profit funding program that receives its funding from Columbia BasinTrust. KORTS Kids to Camp provides financial aid to families with school age children 7 to 18 who will be attending school in the fall. The program is intended to support young permanent residents of the Village of Kaslo in exploring the adventures that summer camp can provide.

KORTS reserves the right to change or modify these guidelines on a case by case basis.

Consideration

KORTS Kids to Camp Funding considers the social & economic barriers facing individuals. To help manage the increased demand & to ensure fair distribution of funding, the following screening criteria will be applied:

Eligibility

- Children who are permanent residence in the Village of Kaslo, age 7 to 18 and will be attending school in the fall are eligible to apply for funding.
- Grants are to be used for payment of approved programs/services only, not capital expenditures.
- Only one application per child a calendar year may be submitted
- It is the responsibility of the Parent/Guardian/Adult Sponsor to ensure the application is complete and submitted by midnight June 27th to Leanne Blancher, KORTS Kids to Camp program contact.
- Incomplete applications may be returned

Grant Distribution

- Once the completed application is received an email will be sent within 24hrs confirming receipt. Please watch for confirmation.
- Emails will be sent by June 29th with grant amounts to families.
- Amounts awarded will depend on the number of applicants.
- Funds are paid directly to camps, not to families.
- Sliding scale camps will be awarded at the minimum amount.
- Refunds from camps due to cancellation will be sent back to KORTS..
- Please keep a photocopy of application for your records

Application Approval

- Notification of status of your application will be sent to the Organization or Individual applicant as soon as a decision is made or by June 29th.
- The grant must be used for whom the grant was approved; no portion of the grant may be transferred to another party.
- The grant must be used for the agreed upon intended purpose unless otherwise pre-approved.
- KORTS Kids To Camp Program reserves the right to request proof of performance to ensure funds have been used as approved.
- All those who apply and receive funding, please be prepared to send support letters to KORTS Kids To Camp Program for future programs and to answer questions regarding their use of funds.

Privacy / Confidentiality

- KORTS respects your privacy. We never sell, trade or loan your information to any other organization. Information provided in this application is being collected for the purpose of administering KORTS Kids To Camp Program.

Completed Applications: Due Thursday June 27th midnight
